Mr. E. P. Lovejoy, a large dealer in general merchandise, and editor of the Wabaska Mangler, at Wabaska, Nevada says: "I have tried St. Patrick's Pills and can truthfully say they are the best I have ever taken or known used." As a pleasant physic or for disorders of the liver they will always give perfect satisfaction. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Change is one of the irresistible laws of nature, and fortunately the change is almost invariably for the better. As an instance of this, St. Patrick's Pills are fast taking the place of the old harsh and violent cathartics, because they are milder and produce a pleasanter effect, besides they are much more beneficial in removing morbid matter from the system and prevent ague and other malarious diseases. As a cathartic and liver pill they are almost perfect. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. — Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

PIANO TUNING.—Frederick Zech is now in the city attending to the piano tuning formerly attended to by his brother, and will be found at Charles Friend's until further notice, where he is prepared to receive all orders, which will be promptly attended to. s22

LOCAL JOYS.

The tin horn gamblers have begun to arrive.

Supt. Laws of the C. & C. R. R. is visiting Carson.

Today's ball game was the talk on the street last evening.

The sprinkling carts were out until about three this morning.

John Sweeney has had his saloon renovated and newly papered.

The fence around the State Printing office is nearly all put up.

Joe Harlow is having an artesian well bored at his residence.

Mr. Kaupp of the Ozark, will have the best of music during fair week.

Virginia will be down in full force today to witness the ball game.

It was quite windy last evening, and the indications are that a storm is near.

O. Roberts of the Arlington House came down from the Lake last night.

The Carson Valley Ranchers say they will be down to the Fair in full blast.

Only 25 cents admission will be charged to see the ball game today at the Fair grounds.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Equalization Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The school boy is very anxious to know whether they will have a vacation or not next week.

The ball game today will draw a big crowd. The Carson Brass Band will be in attendance.

Sand has been laid in front of the grand stand, and wet down so that it is as hard as Main street.

California will probably adopt the Australian system of voting at the next session of the Legislature.

There will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church today. Sunday school at the regular hour.

Nearly all the horses that are now in Reno, will arrive in Carson tonight, either by local train or special.

Mrs. S. P. Davis will assume charge of the APPEAL during the absence of her husband in San Francisco.

With "Fatty" Cohn behind the bar at the race track, everybody will know that good liquor can be had.

Don't fail to buy a ticket for the Warren Juniors' dance on the 12th. The music and the programmes are alone worth the price of admission.

The Tribune thinks the 12 o'clock law ought not to be enforced in Carson during Fair Week. The APPEAL thinks 12 o'clock is time for all good editors to be in bed anyway.

Regular Services will be held in the Catholic Church today at 10:30. Sunday school at 2 o'clock, and benediction at 7:30 P. M. During the Morning Services, a grand ceremony will take place.

The city officials should put on an extra large force of special police next week as we will have a tough mob in town. In Reno, pockets were picked in broad day light, at the Fair grounds.—Look Out!

To-Day's Ball Game.

The Amateurs will be out in full force today and a hotly contested game is looked for. The Comstocks come to Carson almost confident, and the Amateurs say they can give them a warm reception. The Amateurs have made several changes; and last evening Captain Land told a reporter that the following men were chosen: H. Land, E. Johnson, M. Gad, T. Alley, F. Bryant, J. Fryer, G. Cowing, J. Nulty and Martin, not McBrearty as stated.

Yesterday's Races.

As the APPEAL reporter was suddenly called yesterday from Reno to San Francisco, but a meager report of the races is given. Frank B. won the three eighths dash. Applause the five eighths and Victor got away with the trot.

MILLINERY.—A casual glance at Miss Lohman's stock of head dresses for Misses and Ladies will convince anyone that she has styles and novelties enough to suit the most fastidious. sep27,1w

THE DISTRICT FAIR.

Every indication that the Fair will be a Success.

The State Fair closed yesterday after a very successful week.

Tomorrow the District Fair will open at the new track, which is about the finest on the Coast.

Nearly all the fast horses will be over from the Reno track, and some fine racing is assured. No admission will be charged for the first day.

About all the available space in Pavilion has been applied for and the exhibit will equal if not surpass any ever made in the State.

Judging from the amount of season tickets already sold, the attendance at the track will be immense.

Yesterday's freight train from Reno contained several carloads of racers, racing vehicles etc.

Three prize winners from the Holstein Ranch also came over, including Cossette, the APPEAL's premium thoroughbred.

All the ranchers up the Valley will have exhibits at the track and Pavilion, and the Annual District Fair of 1884 will eclipse all former efforts of the Directors.

That Fire.

Ed. APPEAL:—I notice that the Tribune contains the following:

The fire last night was in the rear of the Excelsior Hotel. The Opera House force put it out before the fire boys arrived.—Tribune.

There was not one drop of water put on the fire, except that put on by the Warren Junior's hose. Another proof is the fact that the fire was inside the barn and that the Opera House force, who were in a second story window, could not possibly have reached it. The Tribune to the contrary notwithstanding. Please give the boys credit for what they do.

EYE WITNESS.

Bicycle Races.

The Wheelmen seem to think that some provision should be made for them at the coming District Fair. If the Association can not make some arrangement for them, the business men who so thoroughly enjoy a race by the silent steeds can offer the boys some inducement to try their skill. Much time and money has been spent by the Club getting the flyers in condition and while the Directors are offering prizes right and left, let them look upon the bicycle races from a speculative basis, and as a drawing card worthy of consideration.

Mr. Newland's Address.

The address of Frank J. Newlands before the Agricultural Board was very ably prepared, and those who heard it were greatly impressed by the ability and eloquence of the speaker. Lack of space prevents a complete report.

A Good Business for Sale.

W. H. Chedie, on account of entering other business, offers his grocery business for sale, and gives notice to all those indebted to him to call and settle within 30 days. All bills not paid in that time will be subjected to forced collection. Inquire at the store. s27tf

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trumps put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

Cough! and Cough!! and Cough!!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

E. B. Rul is removing his large stock of wagons and buggies from the street, and decorating the sidewalk with them.

ISABEL MORRIS.

Her Splendid Rendition of "Gwynne's Oath."

The Reno Journal gives the following account of the play at McKissick's Opera House:

A large and enthusiastic audience assembled at McKissick's Opera House last evening to witness the magnificent performance given by Isabel Morris and her splendid company of Gwynne's Oath. The plot of the play turns on the killing of Gilbert Archer, Gwynne's father, by Harry Vesey, and the oath of the daughter to hunt down the murderer. Vesey, at the time of the murder, which occurred in Paris, is known as Horace Vola, an alias assumed to cover his wild and life in that city. In the second act he appears in his true character, and as the nephew of Sir Pierce Parker, with whose family Gwynne has found refuge, Vesey falls in love with Gwynne, or rather the fortune to which he knows she will fall heir, and the play is made up from the time of his attempt to win her, but culminates with her discovery of his guilt. The part of Gwynne was assumed by Miss Morris, and it affords her an excellent opportunity to display a variety of fine acting and she took every advantage of it.

There is a scene of somnambulism in the third act, in which Miss Morris fairly electrified her audience and held it spell-bound.

Mr. Charles J. Edmunds was the Harry Vesey of the play. He was earnest and conscientious in his rendition of the part, and gave Miss Morris excellent support. Mr. John Jack, as Sir Pierce Parker, was the beau ideal of the benevolent, old man. His hearty laugh was contagious and put the audience in the best of humor.

Mr. Richard Temple as Richard Welbeck, made a very good lover.

Mr. Ed Page did some good work as Latour, as did also Warren DeLancey and H. B. Bradley in their respective parts.

Miss Kate Chester as a bright comedienne, captivated by all her artless loveliness.

Little Daisy Chester, the remarkable child actress, played a little boy in a delightful way and drew tears to many eyes.

Mrs. Charles J. Edmunds as the old maid sister of Sir Pierce, was very humorous and from this summary it follows that there was not a weak spot in the cast, which is literally true.

The company is one of the best that ever visited Carson, and will probably draw crowded houses all Fair week.

My facilities for purchasing good beef are second to none in the State, and customers can always be assured of the best in the market.
